

I whole- heartily AGREE with the NCVEC's position concerning the restructuring of Amateur Radio. I firmly believe that testing for a single specific mode of transmission is not only counter-productive, but also ludicrous. Please add my name to the list of folks' who say "86 the code!"